Have you been curious about art journaling, but are not sure where to start? Come and play with me! We'll explore what art journaling is and I will teach you a few techniques for creating fun and expressive pages. We'll create backgrounds, image layers, and top texture. We'll make several pages and you'll get a feel for playing, experimenting, and being free with your art. I'll also give you some tips for page topics and writing on your pages. No previous art experience is required.*

Mark-making is one of my obsessions! Join me for some mark-making play time. We'll start pages with marks made from all kinds of materials and media. We'll use string, sticks, cards, paint lids, and just play and see what happens. Then we'll "read" our marks and listen to what they're saying. We'll turn the marks into layers, and then the layers into finished journal pages. You'll be surprised how this class will help you grow and stretch as an artist!*
