Telling the Story

Lynnette will center this class on creative writing techniques for scrappers. She will give you several creative tips for creating titles and telling your story through you scrapbook pages.

Art Journal Play Series: "Beyond The Ink Pad"

Teacher: Lynnette DeBolt

Cost: $15

In this class, we'll explore one of our favorite addictions, rubber stamps. But we are going to go beyond the ink pad and use stamps with Pan Pastels, acrylic paints, crayons, gelatos, and more. I will show you techniques for creating and then we will build finished pages on top of our stamping-that means we'll consider color, composition and layers as we finish our work. Please bring: Basic tool kit: Ranger craft sheet, paint brushes, rag/cloth, pencil, scissors, water container to clean your brushes, palette knife, baby wipes. Your art journal (I recommend the Dylusions journal by Ranger), Gesso, Gel medium (I prefer soft-gel matte), Acrylic paints, Rubber stamps-bring your "muses." I will have some to share, too!, Black Ink Pad (I like Archival by Ranger). I will have several to share, if you don't have one, Pen(s) for journaling onto your pages, Optional: PanPastels, Gelatos, Neocolor II crayons. Bring these if you have them...if not, don't worry, I will have plenty in class., Optional: your own ink spray and stencils. I will have plenty for class use, but if you have your own, you won't have to share.

Teacher: Dina Wakley

Art Journal Play Series: "Listening & Layering"

Teacher: Dina Wakley

In this class we'll explore and push our layers. I will guide you through layering exercises, where you listen to my prompts and then react in your journal. No two pieces will be alike! It's a great artistic study for learning how to listen to your artwork, where to put the next layer, and when to stop. We'll try to load our pages with as many layers as we can, making sure we remain in control of the layers and that we work them to our advantage. Please bring: Basic tool kit: Ranger craft sheet, paint brushes, rag/cloth, pencil, scissors, water container to clean your brushes, palette knife, baby wipes, Your art journal (I recommend the Dylusions journal by Ranger), Gesso, Acrylic paints, Gel medium (I prefer soft-gel matte), Rubber stamps-bring your "muses." Please bring: Basic tool kit: Ranger craft sheet, paint brushes, rag/cloth, pencil, scissors, water container to clean your brushes, palette knife, baby wipes, Gesso, Gel medium (I prefer soft-gel matte), Glue stick or double-sided tape, Acrylic paints. We'll play with split-complementary, triadic, analogous with complement, to name a few. I'll show you how to take each color scheme and make a vibrant page with it. Along the way I'll give you tips and techniques for managing color and using contrast effectively. We'll mix ink and acrylics to give interesting layers and color effects. Please bring: Basic tool kit: Ranger craft sheet, paint brushes, rag/cloth, pencil, scissors, water container to clean your brushes, palette knife, baby wipes, Your art journal (I recommend the Dylusions journal by Ranger), Gesso, Gel medium (I prefer soft-gel matte), Acrylic paints, Rubber stamps-bring your "muses." This is six-hour version of my popular "Facing the Facts" class. Don't worry, this class is for you. I will teach you the formulas for how to draw quirky and fun art faces, and we'll practice them in our "Face Book"-a brand new Dylusions art journal that you'll receive in class. Even if you already keep a journal, your "Face Book" will be the journal in which you concentrate on exploring faces. We'll do several background layering techniques, and top it off with drawing and painting. Your faces can come from imaginary worlds, be characters in a story, or even represent you! Once we conquer the 100% face view, we'll tackle the 3/4 view. We'll also try some fun, artsy drawing techniques that will push you.
